Cadorath Appoints Brandy Cadorath as President

Winnipeg, Manitoba – July 14, 2025 – Cadorath is proud to announce the appointment of Brandy Cadorath as the company's new President, effective immediately.

Brandy steps into the role following the recent passing of her father, Gerry Cadorath, who served as President and CEO with exceptional leadership and unwavering dedication. As a member of the third generation of the Cadorath family to guide the company, Brandy brings a deep understanding of the organization's values, operations, and long-term vision.

With over 14 years of experience across various departments of the company, Brandy has earned the respect of customers, partners, and employees through her integrity, drive, and commitment to excellence. Her leadership will continue to guide Cadorath as it honors its legacy while pursuing innovation and growth across its aviation and industrial service divisions.

"We are confident that Brandy will continue to build on the strong foundation laid by her father and the generation before him," said David R. Haines, Chief Operating Officer. "Her ability to lead with both empathy and strategic focus ensures the continued success and stability of the organization."

The Cadorath team remains committed to serving customers with the highest standards of quality and service that have defined the company for over 70 years.
